GARDEN BOUTIQUE

Position: Gardening Enthusiast

Benefits: Paid Vacation, Holidays, Sick Time, 401(k), generous employee discount, plus additional fringe benefits

Reports To: Department Manager

Job Overview

When it comes to gardening, you really know your stuff. You have a good three years of experience working in the gardening industry. Better yet, you have retail garden center experience! You have a solid feel for our Charleston climate and are very comfortable making good plant recommendations.

Hot weather? Not a problem because you prefer to be outdoors. Rain? No problem either because you won't melt. Dirt under your fingernails? Always.

Responsibilities and Duties

- Greet and assist customers, encouraging maximum sales of plants and related products.
- Learn and offer current and correct information about plants, plant care and planting procedures. Work with your department manager to ensure you are giving the best information.
- Assist with restocking, pricing, labeling, display and maintenance of plants and related products
- Help maintain adequate inventory levels of products
- Assist with overall appearance of department sales area: dust, spray, deadhead, re-tag/pot, maintain correct signage

Qualifications & Skills

- You have a special talent for putting together beautiful gardens. Gardening on a small scale, whether it be patios or porches, is close to your heart.

- You know how important it is to pair the right plants together for beauty and success
- When you see a customer, you know it's your first priority to make contact and welcome them. Then, help them focus in on products that will help them be successful with their project.
- If they're not successful the first time around, you'll be there to get them back on track with a smile.
- You also know that in order to make great sales, plants and products need to look their best. So, between customers, you'll have no problem watering, restocking and cleaning what needs to be cleaned.
- Because you are self-motivated, you don't need someone checking up on you to make sure you are always being productive.
- You're not afraid to admit what you don't know or ask for help from other staff.
- You take pride in your work and have a passion for what you do.
- You're looking for part-time or full-time work and are available on Saturdays.
